ANOTHER MURDER MYSTERY PUZZLES GOTHAM POLICE

Actress With Her Skull Crushed Found Dead In A New York Boarding House.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Feb. 20.—A murder mystery with some features not unlike that of the famous Nan Patterson case, is engaging the attention of the police here today. Gussie Hart, an actress, was the victim and a carriage, according to the theory of the police, was the scene of her death. Several persons thought to know something of the woman's death have disappeared. The first intimation that the crime had been committed came to the police when a physician notified them he had been called to the house at No. 261 West 38th street to attend a woman and found her dead. Her skull had been fractured. Miss Hart was appearing in "The Child Wife" at a theatre in this city. A man named Murphy told the police that Miss Hart fell down stairs at the Little Savor cafe.

ANOTHER ACTION WAR ON PENNSYLVANIA MACHINE

Mayorality Election Held In Pittsburg Today... Democrats And Reformers Vs. Republicans.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 20.—No election in the political record of Pittsburg ever has created more intense interest among all classes than the mayorality contest that is being fought out at the polls today. The alignment of the opposing factions is very similar to that in the Philadelphia city election of last fall. In other words, the question at issue is whether the so-called republican machine shall be given control or be permanently relegated to the junk pile. Upon the result of the election depends even more than the local reform is involved in the contest. It may be said truthfully that it will have a most important bearing upon the next state campaign in Pennsylvania and upon the political future of several republican leaders of national prominence.

GETS AUTOGRAPH OF LONGWORTH COUPLE

Little Maid Secures Coveted Signature as Bride and Groom Wait on Platform for Train.

Washington, Feb. 20.—When everything along the old Tonalley Town road, which leads by "Friendship," was in a somnolent state, about 3 o'clock Monday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth made a sortie for the finish of their honeymoon. The heavy iron gates opened to let pass the new touring car of John R. McLean, which on Saturday did duty in helping the young couple escape from the White House grounds for seclusion over Sunday. At full speed it made its way through Georgetown, startling the police and racing across Georgetown bridge to Alexandria.

The only one who recognized the couple as they paced up and down the platform in an apprehensive manner was a little girl of Alexandria, who timidly approached Mrs. Longworth with an open autograph album in her hand and asked if she would sign her name therein.

"Why, of course," said the bride. "Have you a pencil?"

The child, in dismay, said she had none.

"Nick, give me a pencil," and not waiting for him to make a search of his vest pockets she went through them herself, making the first open exposition of her wifely privilege.

After she had finished scribbling her name, with best wishes, and the little girl was turning away, she asked, "Why, don't you want Mr. Longworth's signature? Or don't you think he is worth it?"

The girl pushed her book in an embarrassed way toward the groom, and he, with a grin somewhat sheepish, rapidly wrote his name on a blank page. Just then the train to which was attached their private car pulled in, and almost before it stopped they swung aboard.

Her stay at the Prado is fixed by precedent at six days, during which she will receive official visits from all authorities, the officers of the King's household, the Cortes and the Senate. Two days before the marriage ceremony of "Toma de Dicho," the solemn reading of the marriage contract, will be performed.

MEASURE HELD UP BY STANDARD OIL?

Hitch in Passing of Bill to Place Wood Alcohol on Free List Expended Today.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Washington, D. C., Feb. 20.—The Ways and Means Committee of the House today listened to arguments in opposition to the proposed removal of the tax on alcohol used in the arts and industries. The opposition ostensibly comes from the wood alcohol producers who assert that their business would be ruined by freeing denatured grain alcohol. In reality, however, it is declared that the real opposition to the removal of the tax is backed by Standard Oil influence. On account of the existing tax the use of alcohol in the United States for industrial purposes as it is used in other countries is practically prohibited. It is pointed out that were the rest of the civilized world uses alcohol this country uses gasoline and gasoline is a Standard Oil product. Hence the opposition of the great oil trust to having the alcohol tax removed.

The geological formation of the place is similar to that covering an area of fifteen square miles about River Falls and aside from this tract nothing similar is found in the state of Wisconsin. Sandstone bluffs filled with a peculiar quality of sandstone are the prevailing characteristics. Glaciers left these in strange formation, which rise several hundred feet.

CHEER HUNGARY; CURSE AUSTRIA

Members Of Parliament Driven From The Chamber By The Police And Militia.

ROYAL RESCRIPT IS TURNED DOWN

House Votes To Return Order To Dissolve The Emperor King Amid Prolonged Cheers And Singing Of The Kossuth Hymn.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Buda-Pesth, Feb. 20.—Singing the Kossuth hymn and alternately cheering Hungary and cursing Austria the members of the Hungarian parliament Monday were driven from the floor and corridors of the building at the point of the bayonet and parliament declared dissolved. A wave of national indignation is sweeping over Hungary and messages are being sent to the deputies urging them to stand firm.

The members of the coalition party declared that the dissolution was unconstitutional and illegal and that they would hold a meeting Wednesday in the parliament building unless prevented by troops, in which case the meeting would be held elsewhere.

The session Monday opened at 10 o'clock sharp. The vice-president read letters from Gen. Nyiri, the royal commissioner, and Herr Justi, president of the lower house, and declared that the royal rescript dissolving parliament forwarded by Gen. Nyiri, was unconstitutional and illegal. The vice-president proposed that the house ignore the rescript and return it to the emperor-king. The house unanimously accepted the proposal with prolonged cheers. Thereafter the minutes of the meeting were adopted, the deputies were notified to reassemble on Wednesday and then the house adjourned.

IGNORE ROYAL RESCRIPT

The royal rescript dissolving parliament was left lying unopened on the president's desk and the members left the house singing the Kossuth hymn. The floor was almost cleared when a captain of the Hungarian militia, at the head of five soldiers with fixed bayonets, and a large number of policemen, who had previously entered by a side door, entered the house.

The captain then opened and read the rescript amid constant interruptions from the galleries and some of the deputies who returned to the floor, and all present united in singing the Kossuth hymn, with the result that not a word of the rescript could be heard.

POLICE REMOVE MEMBERS

The police escorted several of the noisy members from the floor and then slowly cleared the galleries and corridors.

A large crowd of cheering deputies escorted Francis Kossuth, Count Albert Apponyi and other leaders from the house, which was surrounded by five squadrons of cavalry, one regiment of infantry, a battalion of militia and 1,000 policemen.

THE DEPUTIES, ALREADY EMBITTERED, WERE STILL FURTHER EXASPERATED WHEN ARRIVING THEY FOUND THE BUILDING THUS CORDONED. THIS OUTWARD EVIDENCE OF AN INTENTION TO COERCE THE DEPUTIES SETTLED THE MATTER, AND WHEN THE TIME CAME TO VOTE THERE WAS NO DIVERGENCE OF OPINION.

APPROXIMATELY SATISFACTION

Speaking Monday afternoon Count Albert Apponyi, who with Francis Kossuth leads the coalition parties, expressed himself as highly gratified with the events of the morning. He said he considered that the coalition had gained a signal victory over the crown as the result of the crown's method of attempting to dissolve the parliament, which he characterized as illegal.

Shopiere.—Rev. Samuel Lutz has arranged to deliver two illustrated lectures on Europe in the Methodist Episcopal church at Shopiere. His first will be Tuesday evening, February 20, and his subject is "Constantinople, Naples, and Pompeii." His second will be on Tuesday evening, February 27. The subject is "Athens, Nimes, Nice, Genoa, and Southern France." The hour of both entertainments is eight o'clock.

Milton.—Milton residents and the Milton Gas company have been at war for some time over the service furnished by the latter and the patrons have now entered upon a unanimous agreement to boycott the company. The Milton Journal says of the situation: "In the meantime kerosene lamps have become very popular and it is possible that a club will be formed for the promotion of the use of kerosene and the reformation of the Standard Oil Co. Not a single patron of the Gas Co. expects to use gas again—until the plant is in working order."

Edgerton.—The matter of letting the contract for the building of the proposed $10,000 Carnegie library is at a standstill again. Bids were opened last week and all proved too high, the lowest being some $2,000 higher than the appropriation. The Library Board is undecided whether to attempt to raise more funds or to have the plans greatly modified.

La Prairie.—Seventy friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. S. Pritchard surprised them at their home in the town of La Prairie twice last week, on Wednesday and Friday evenings. Both times the festivities proved most enjoyable and the guests did not depart until late hours. Mr. and Mrs. Pritchard are to reside at 106 Fifth avenue.

Harmony.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kelm entertained a number of friends at a card party last Wednesday evening. The first prizes were won by Mrs. Fred Chismore and Fred Ullius and the consolation by Miss Alice Auld and John Godfrey.

SHEEP RAISING
IS PROFITABLE

MUTTON IS FED MORE CHEAPLY THAN BEEF.

WOOL BRINGS GOOD RETURNS

Sare of the Flock and Proper Preparation of Clip Add to the Value of Product.

Not every man is adapted to raising sheep and wool. No matter how nice and smiling a man may seem to be, if the sheep get as far from him as they can when he comes into the yard, you may mark it down that he has not the qualifications that make a good shepherd. This is true to a great extent in the raising of any kind of stock, but more especially sheep, as they require careful, kindly attention, and if such treatment is not given them, lost time will surely be the result.

Experience Necessary
Any one having the right disposition can usually make a good profit from the labor and capital invested in them in most any section of this country, if proper care and attention is given. No one without previous experience should go into sheep raising on a large scale. No rule can be laid down that will apply to all cases in all sections of this country, where by one can successfully grow them without experience, but any one with ordinary judgment may succeed. The proper care and handling of sheep can be learned only by experience; no one can tell you how. Of course, some general rules can be given that will greatly aid and assist the beginner.

In Different Sections
The care and treatment given them in the south would be radically different from that in the north, with similar differences existing between east and west. Therefore, no definite rule for such can be given unless the surroundings are understood. As to the best breeds, that depends largely upon what they are grown for, whether for mutton, wool or for sale as breeding stock. Much also depends as to where one is located, as to what breed to select. My experience has been that a breed that is suited for the south is not always best for the north, and vice versa, although it has been found to succeed in some cases.

Proper Care Is Vital
Great care should be taken in selecting stock for breeding purposes. None but those suited for the use for which they are grown, and for the section of the country where they are to be raised should be selected, and they should be the best to be had. After a selection of stock has been made, give them the very best treatment and push forward all the time. The reason that many fail in raising sheep is that they give them no shelter and care from the cold and rain, and no attention whatever. Irregular feeding is also detrimental. It is the ambition of every man to succeed in his business for many reasons, a few of which are that he will always need mutton and wool, that the sheep fill a place that nothing else can do, nearly every condition of farm country is favorable to them in some degree, and they are favorable to it.

Mutton Is Profitable
Our population has increased very fast and will. Today the different trades and occupations are crowding each other. We find in all business, the man who is an expert in this line is a winner. Few sheep owners know that sheep return to the feed one-half more increase in growth than cattle. For the same proportionate food sheep pay up 12 per cent of the food increase in weight, while cattle only make 8 per cent, so that mutton may be made for 50 per cent less cost than beef.

Many Various Breeds
The farmers owning a flock of sheep are the owners of a combination of wool, roller and mutton spreader. By observation and experience the breed for this section of the country should combine mutton and wool, such as the Shropshires, Oxford and Ramboulets. The Shropshire cross on Merino ewes is popular in the market, giving better staple wool and lighter shrinkage. There being some thirty-two distinct grades of wool known to the trade, such as quarter blood, three-eighths, half, Delaine, Common, Kemp, Combing, Clothing, not over 15 per cent running to combing in this country, and the way the producers generally put the wool up averages heavier in shrinkage than most any other state east of the Mississippi.

Particular with Wool
On the majority of sheep stations the classing and getting up of the clip is given most careful attention, but the owners of small flocks may not always take sufficient trouble to class their wools properly, consequently the price of farmers wool is below station brands. Many a good clip is marred by handling at shearing time, and the grower frequently thinks his wool has been sacrificed by the dealer. Instead of finding out the cause he tries another dealer the following year, with the same result. A well gotten up clip, large or small, is readily disposed of, but carelessly put up, is more difficult to sell.

Prepare Clip Well
A wool grower sending wool to market in a heavy dirty condition, leaving anything in the fleece to make more weight and expecting to get more money is greatly mistaken. Buyers have to estimate the value of the clip by the net yield of clean wool. When growers do their best they secure for themselves the best results. The soundness of the fibre may be tested by stretching a small staple between the fingers. Staple 2½ inches in length up is classed as combing, below clothing. Labor expended in preparing the clip for sale is well bestowed and brings its own reward. The yolk in wool is the oily substance which gives color and lends softness to the fleece. It also promotes the growth of the fleeces and prevents the wearing of the fibre. Good feeding, shelter and care promotes this secretion.

Seventh of Industries Sheep and wool is the seventh largest industry in the United States. The number of sheep in the world is estimated at 600,000,000; of this number one-third are classed merinos. The Leicester breed of sheep was founded in 1802 by Lord Polwarth of Merthoun. The Spanish merinos were first imported into England by George III. in 1791. It is said that woolen goods were manufactured in Asia 2,000 years before the Christian era. The domesticated sheep were first introduced into America by the Spaniards about the year 1500. The Robert Taylor clip of Montana, 500,000 pounds, is the largest clip in the United States, raised by one grower.

CALLED BY DEATH

A. Martin Vollmer of Milton, Succumbs to Consumption—Remodeled Methodist Church—Dedicated on Sunday.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Milton, Feb. 20.—A. Martin Vollmer, M. D., died Thursday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vollmer, after a long illness. Dr. Vollmer graduated from Milton College in the class of 1898 and after his graduation took a course in medicine. Soon after receiving his medical degree he married and went to Apia, Samoa, where he was very successful in the practice of his profession. Last summer he was attacked with consumption and early in the fall returned to this place. The best medical skill and treatment failed to arrest the progress of the dread disease, and the deceased realized that there was no hope of recovery. During his college career Doctor Vollmer was popular with faculty, classmates and citizens and his death in early manhood is a personal loss to them as well as to his family and the community in which he practiced his profession. The funeral services were held Sunday morning at the Seventh-day Baptist church in this village, and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Olds, of Waukegan, assisted by Prof. Shaw of the college faculty. Music was furnished by the college quartet.

FOR REGULATING
JUNK MERCHANTS

THE MERRITT ORDINANCE INTRODUCED LAST EVENING.

GRADING IN FOREST PARK

Will Be Discussed Thursday Afternoon at Meeting of Property Holders with Highway Committee.

First and second reading of an ordinance to regulate pawnbrokers, and dealers in second-hand goods, wares and merchandise, was given at the council meeting last evening. The measure was introduced by Alderman Merritt. The latter moved that the rules be set aside and that the ordinance be advanced to its third reading and placed on passage, but with drew his motion when Aldermen Connell and Jackman objected, the former on account of one of the second-hand dealers in his ward who had remonstrated with him over the probable introduction and passage of such an act and urged him to oppose it.

Measure Is Rather Drastic
The measure provides that no person shall engage in or follow the occupations outlined in the title (except in the case of furniture) without having first obtained a license. The annual fees stipulated are: pawnbroker, $50; junk-dealer, $25; and second-hand dealer, $15. The place where the business is to be carried on, must be defined in the application for the license. Along with this application there must be a bond with two signers in the penal sum of $500 as a guarantee that the applicant will comply with all ordinances, etc. Under one license he is restricted to one shop or place of business, but he may remove from one place to another by giving written notice to the city marshal. Every person so licensed shall have a sign painted with the word "Licensed" before the designation of his occupation and hung up in a conspicuous place before his place of business. He is also required to keep a record of the time when goods are taken, a description with names and addresses of persons selling or pledging merchandise, and in the case of jewelry a description of all possible marks of identification. Junk-dealers are required to submit to the city marshal before noon each day a complete transcript of the detailed records of the day before. All dealers referred to in the ordinance are forbidden to purchase from minors or intoxicated persons. The city marshal may require them to hold a given piece of merchandise for a reasonable length of time. A penalty ranging from $5 to $50 is provided for all

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Marnett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send the stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

increased in value ever since. If disgruntled politicians seek revenge they

There is in session in Washington a convention whose purpose is to demand that congress enact more uniform divorce laws that will govern the whole country. Among the facts brought out yesterday are the following showing the great need for radical steps in this direction. The latest obtainable statistics (1901) show that every fourth marriage contracted in Seattle, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Kansas City resulted in divorce.
In 1881 the total number of divorces granted in the United States came to 20,715. The increase since that date is estimated at 327 per cent. An idea of the gravity of the evil revealed by these figures may be gained from the fact that the total number of divorces granted in the German empire in 1901 was 8,037 and the total in France for 1900, 7,157.CIRCUIT JUDGESHIP.
The fight that is being waged for circuit judgeship can scarcely be realized by residents of Janesville owing to the quiet manner in which the campaign is being conducted here.

With three probate judges and one circuit judge all seeking election to this office the outside districts have plenty to talk about. It is probably that no election of a circuit judge has ever caused so much talk as is the present. Judges Sale, Becker and Grimm, all three present probate judges of Rock, Green and Jefferson counties are seeking the place now held by Judge Dunwiddie who also seeks re-election. Strange as it may seem the contest for office is not the unseemly scramble for choice that might be expected under ordinary circumstances but a dignified contest in which four gentlemen, all lawyers, all men of integrity and worth are indulging in.
Each candidate has certain claims to the office which they present to the public for their consideration. It is for the public to decide but the voter is warned not to forget the proper time to decide this contest is at the polls and not forget to vote for one candidate or another. It is every tax payer's right to vote on this question and they should not forget it.

PUBLICITY.

One of the modern stages of the business and professional and political world is the amount of publicity that a business, an individual or a political or political party, can obtain.
Janesville is about to have a test of this at the coming spring election.
Doubtless there are few persons that do not know that a judge to succeed Judge Dunwiddie on the bench of the third judicial circuit is to be selected.
That four men, Judge Becker of Green county, Judge Grimm of Jefferson county and Judges Sale and present Judge, Dunwiddie, of Rock county are candidates. Their announcements have been made through the columns of the newspaper. There is a doubt if the voters as a whole know that a municipal judge to fill the newly created "municipal court" of Beloit is to be selected. Few can even tell the names of the men suggested for this office. The publicity that is given to these candidates in the old day was part of the pleasure of the newspapers. Under the new primary law it is part of the business of the newspaper at the expense of the candidates.
The columns of the papers are open for announcements of different candidates at so much per line. It makes the papers participants in the honors to be received by the aspirants for office. In the city aldermen and supervisors are to be selected. One alderman in each ward, one supervisor in each ward. A city treasurer and a city attorney. The candidates are out hustling for support. The best way to bring it to the notice of their constituency is through the columns of the newspaper and until after the primaries decide who shall be the nominees the Gazette will maintain a silence as regards the merits of the respective candidates. When the nominations are made it will announce who will receive the support due them.
The primary law is the wedge for the breaking down of the old party lines.
Democrats can vote the republican ticket and nominate some weak feeble candidate whom they know their candidate can defeat and vice versa. The true test of the party politics is done away with and unless good true men of stable character and strong convictions for right and wrong are nominated it is the policy of the Gazette to be impartial in its support. In other words the non partisan as regards local politics. The report to the effect that a certain ring of politicians have planned to capture the council and oust the present city marshal to pay off grudge is daily heard on the streets. Its authenticity can not be run down but every person signing a nomination paper or pledging his vote should be assured of the actual position of the candidate they propose to support before promising their vote.
It is an important matter and one that should be well considered. The question of sewer contracts has also a bearing in this election and good true men should be chosen who are not afraid to call a spade a spade if need be.

APOLLO CLUB HELD ENJOYABLE EVENING

Music Lovers Had a Rare Treat in Last Evening's Concert at Library Hall.

Music-lovers of Janesville enjoyed a rare treat in the remarkably well-rendered program of most difficult and beautiful music at the Apollo club last night. Mrs. Krum of Chicago more than pleased with her charming personality and her splendid voice. Her selections ranging from "Gossip Joan—16th Century old English" to the most modern great German song writers. Brahms, Strauss, Hindach and Hahn, gave opportunity for the varied expression of her most musical powers. Brahms' music is quite beyond the majority of even very good singers. Mrs.
Krum's singing of the Brahms group will long be remembered by those so fortunate as to have heard her, bringing out, as she did, in all its beauty that subtle lyric element so fascinating in this great composer's work.
It was a marvel to those who listened that a voice of such rare power and richness could give also such lightness, softness and delicacy to this intricate music. Mrs. Krum's singing of "When the Year's at the Spring" by Brach was nothing less than an event in musical circles in Janesville. It is doubtful if anything has ever been more magnificently sung in our city. The singing of this number brought forth such enthusiasm and applause that Mrs. Krum generously repeated it to the delight of her appreciative listeners. Mrs.
Sweeney's numbers were also admirably chosen. The opening number, the dignified and sonorous "Preludium and Toccata" by Bach was played in a masterly manner. The "Pere Gynt" suite on the program by special request of those who have particularly enjoyed Mrs. Sweeney's exquisite interpretation of this wondrously beautiful old Norse legend was most enjoyable and evoked an encore.
These numbers with Liszt's "Capric-cio" brilliantly executed form a group which display to great advantage Mrs. Sweeney's superb technique. Her many admirers are happy to note the steady growth and increasing excellence in Mrs. Sweeney's piano work.

SECOND ORDER A VERBAL ONE

DELIVERED TO CONDUCTOR PECK
AT 8:13 P. M.

TESTIMONY OF OPERATOR

Stone Before Coroner's Jury Yesterday Shed Additional Light on the Great Railroad Catastrophe.

Still more light was thrown on the railroad tragedy of Feb. 14 when Rolla D. Stone, night operator at the North-Western depot, took the stand yesterday afternoon. He corroborated the previous evidence regarding the giving of the order to Conductor Peck at 7:52 o'clock and stated that the recipient proceeded from his office to the roundhouse. By the time the locomotive had been gotten out of its shelter and hooked onto the caboose it was too late to start for Affton. The special was therefore backed up on the spur track south of the depot. Peck returned to the operator's room and told him that he didn't get out. He asked Mr. Stone if his train could get to Affton after the arrival of No. 11. The latter said he would call Baraboo. He did so and received orders for Conductor Peck to run the extra from Janesville to Affton after the arrival of No. 11 and ahead of No. 30 which was about 50 minutes late. This order was delivered to Conductor Peck at 8:13 in verbal form. Then, it appears that Peck went down stairs and stood on the platform for a short time. When No. 541, the Chicago accommodation, pulled in he must have immediately notified Engineer Briscoe to go ahead, inasmuch as No. 541 arrived at 8:15 p. m. and the wreck occurred according to the best information at 8:23. The extra probably left the Janesville depot at 8:17 and made the run to the place where the collision occurred in about six minutes.

Engineer Briscoe Questioned

District Attorney John L. Fisher and the coroner's jury went to the Palmer hospital this morning and listened to the statements of Engineer Briscoe of the freight. His recital of the facts was substantially the same as that given in Friday's Gazette. He said that he never remembered having pulled Conductor Peck before and that it was his first trip with the fireman and the two brakemen. He had been running over this division as an extra engineer for four years, but was not very familiar with the yards in Janesville or with the trains and their equipment, having run out of here but a few times. Never having seen Train 541, he did not know what equipment it carried and hence might have failed to recognize that the train which pulled in was 541 and not No. 11, had he not been busily engaged with his locomotive at the time. He remembered looking at his watch at 8:10 and knew that No. 11 had had sufficient time to get in according to the time tables.

Devins Fixes the Time

Conductor George Devins of the passenger testified that he looked at his watch at 8:21 and that directly thereafter he changed his coat. It seemed to him that immediately after he had done so the trains came together. He fixed the time of the catastrophe as not later than 8:23. The testimony of Joseph Elger, brakeman on the passenger, corroborated what had gone before.

Conductor Peck Not Heard

The district attorney and the jury were unwilling to question Conductor Peck while there was any danger of the strain causing a relapse and the examination of him must necessarily be a very searching one. The hospital authorities did not lend encouragement to the idea of a long investigation at this time and it was decided to postpone it until Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Peck was bolstered up in his bed and was bidding his little daughter good-bye as the jury filed past his room. One bit of evidence given by Conductor Devins was to the effect that he had known Peck for twenty years and that he had never known of his using liquor. Most people put little faith in this liquor hypothesis as the first cause of the tragedy. All the men who worked with the conductor had testified that he was sober and industrious and that they had not known of his using strong drink at this or any other time.

ANOTHER WISCONSIN PIONEER SUMMONED

Willard Woodstock Passes Away at Lima Center—Was Early Disciple of Joseph Smith.

Willard Woodstock passed away at his home in Lima Center on the afternoon of Monday, Feb. 19. In his death Rock county loses another pioneer who has answered the final summons. Although never a man of public position, probably few men are better known in the communities in which they have lived. The solicitude of sorrowing friends speaks volumes for his life of integrity. His aspirations were not for public prominence but for the simple, true, home life which has meant much to those about him. For over half a century he has witnessed the development of Rock county and has been interested and instrumental in promoting its welfare. Willard Woodstock was born Nov. 21, 1840, in Springfield, Ohio, of English parentage. It was about this time that his parents became acquainted with the belief of the Latter Day Saints and united with that faith. In 1842 they moved with the Saints to Nauvoo, Ill., and remained there during the trying time of the martyrdom of the prophets Joseph and his brother, Hyram Smith, and the scattering of the Saints which followed. With others they rejected the leadership and teachings of Brigham Young and refused to follow him to Utah. In 1848 the family came to Wisconsin and for four years lived upon the pre-empted homestead, near Johnstown, this county. The twelve succeeding years of boyhood and young manhood were spent in and about Janesville. In 1864 Willard Woodstock was united in marriage to Marian Edwards. Eight children have entered the home, all but two of whom with the wife remain to mourn the loss of a kind, loving father and husband. The first two children died in infancy. In 1869 an overland journey was made to Missouri and the five succeeding years were spent in this southern state. The move did not prove satisfactory and they returned to the Badger state and soon settled on the old homestead near Johnstown. It was here that the large family was reared. After twenty-two years of active work, when the children were grown, the parents retired to a quiet life in Lima Center. Not for long was the peaceful home allowed to remain, for after six years' death had entered and broke the circle. Yet his work seems completed and he was ready for the change. In 1890 he reunited with the reorganized church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and has lived a faithful, consistent, Christian life devotedly loved by the family and highly esteemed by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his demise besides the wife, two brothers, Henry of Janesville and Loyal of California; two sisters, Mrs. Nancy Johnson and Mrs. Elizabeth Scarliff, both of Holden, Mo.; a daughter, Mrs. N. E. Field of Janesville; five sons, Alma D. of South Bend, Ind., Fred W. of Lima Center, Henry W. of Beloit, Charles B. of Kenosha and Archie E. of Fort Atkinson. Five grandchildren and many relatives and friends also mourn the loss. The funeral services will be held from the late residence in Lima Center at 10 o'clock Wednesday, Elder F. M. Cooper of Plano, Ill., officiating. Interment in Oak Hill cemetery.

March 1.

A change in business location is to be made March 1st by which E. B. Heimstreet takes possession of the three stores now occupied by the Grubb Produce Co., corner of South Main and Court streets. The room will be refitted into a fine pharmacy and Mr. Heimstreet will make out of it an elegant business place. In order to conduct a friendly speculation on several points, a list of prizes are to be given for correct replies to questions listed on page four. Mr. Heimstreet leaves the location at 9 North Main street, in which a drug store has been conducted continuously since 1865. Business was first inaugurated by Chas. Colwell and shortly after was taken over by Mr. Heimstreet who has carried it on since. He is the oldest druggist in point of business years in the city and has had opportunity of watching the city development and many changes as have but few others. Mr. and Mrs. Heimstreet have rented the lower south flat in the La Vista block and will occupy it.

TWO NEW TEACHERS IN LOCAL SCHOOLS

Vacancies Caused by Resignations of Miss Fletcher and Miss Enright Are Filled.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education two vacancies in the teaching corps of the local schools were filled. The resignations of Miss Mabel Fletcher and Miss Katherine Enright were received and accepted. Miss Fletcher retires from the profession and Miss Enright has gone to Chicago, where she has taken a position in one of the public graded schools. Her salary will be double that paid her here and her many friends will congratulate her upon her success. Miss Fletcher's position on the high school faculty is to be taken by Miss Agnes Greening, who has been teaching in the English department. Miss Greening's place has been filled by Miss Abbie Terry of Madison. She is a graduate of Milwaukee Normal school, a graduate of Wisconsin university, and spent a semester in the latter institution in post-graduate work. She has had several years' experience in the graded schools of Waukesha and two years in the Grand Rapids, Wis., high school. Miss Enright's place as teacher of the fourth grade of the Lincoln school has been taken by Miss Rosa Gagan of the Adams school and Miss Alice Young of the Adams school. Miss Gagan was elected to fill Miss Gagan's former position.

Robbing Yourself

That is just what you are doing when you fail to get regular and sufficient sleep. Your body requires this unconscious period for repair work; without it your nerve energy becomes exhausted, and you are tired, worn-out, nervous, excitable; have headache, neuralgia, indigestion, poor appetite, or other ailments caused by a lack of nerve force. Make it your business to sleep. If you are restless, take Dr. Miles' Nervine; it soothes and strengthens the nerves, and brings sweet, refreshing, life-giving sleep, and gives the organs power to work naturally. Try it to-day.

"I had a severe spell of fever, which left me in a very weak condition and very nervous. I had severe spells of headache and neuralgia, and could sleep but very little. Every effort that was made to recover my strength was of no avail until I began taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. After I commenced to take the Nervine my sleep was profound and restful, and the pains in my head, as well as the neuralgia, left me to a certain extent, and I feel greatly benefited."

Set your eyes on Dr. Miles' Nervine, sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.
